Add Baker Mayfield to the list of believers who claim to have seen a UFO.

The Cleveland Browns' quarterback is certainly not alone. Last week, an American Airlines pilot claimed to have seen an unidentified flying object in the skies over Arizona, and on Dec. 29, a blue UFO reportedly was seen over Hawaii. Last year, the Pentagon declassified footage shot by a Navy pilot that purports to show what they called "unexplained aerial phenomena."

In 218 BCE, Roman historian Livy claimed in his book "Ab Urbe Condita" that "phantom ships had been seen gleaming in the sky."

So, yeah, humans have been claiming UFO sightings for quite some time. Mayfield's sighting Wednesday night is just the latest.

Almost 100%, Em and I just saw a UFO drop straight out of the sky on our way home from dinner... we stopped and looked at each other and asked if either of us saw it... Very bright ball of light going straight down out of the sky towards Lake Travis. Anybody else witness this?

Remember, the truth is out there.
