New UAP Leaked Imag...

It’s been some time since UAP imagery was “leaked” and published by Jeremy Corbell and George Knapp, but in the early morning hours of January 24, 2023, a new UAP case has been revealed.

During the premiere of their new "Weaponized Podcast", Corbell and Knapp revealed what they call the "Mosul Orb".

Here is the highest resolution available:

Here is the segment from their show for context:

The Mosul Orb : A Military Filmed UFO In An Active War Zone

Credit to The Daily Mail for covering the story first, as written by Josh Boswell & Chris Sharp.

On Corbell's Instagram account, he added the following context:

MOSUL ORB : US military filmed UFO from an active conflict zone – officially designated by the US government and intelligence agencies as a UAP (Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena) and currently part of the active UAP investigations under the US DoD.

You can hear and see more about this case on Corbell's and Knapp's new podcast and show called WEAPONIZED.

On Corbell's ExtraordinaryBeliefs.com website, here wrote the following (see link for full article):

BACKGROUND

On May 1st, 2020 a classified briefing was generated about the UFO / UAP presence, via the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI). This UAP briefing is a build-on to a previous ONI briefing, generated on October 18th, 2019. Both were distributed across a wide range of intelligence networking platforms

(such as SIPRNet, JWICS and various Intelink systems). The UAP intelligence briefing was most recently uploaded and distributed on November 4th, 2021.

This "Mosul Orb" UFO video is included in the above mentioned UAP educational audio / visual presentation. This briefing was generated and populated across intelligence platforms to educate United States Armed Forces and the intelligence community on the nature and presentation of the UAP / UFO phenomenon. Those familiar with the creation of the briefing state that the aim is to de-stigmatize the UAP problem and to promote more intelligence collection regarding UAP incursions and encounters with active military deployments. Although the "Mosul Orb" footage is contained within a classified briefing, the image itself remains unclassified.

According to the geo-coordinates embedded on the frame, it is confirmed as Mosul, Iraq, according to Twitter user "Flarkey":

As more information unfolds, this article will be updated.
